

Curriculum Drivers Reading

High Aspirations

- Library visit for Pupil Premium children to see author Jacek M. Pawlowski
- Signed copy of author's book on display in Library as well as illustrations
- Core texts have a diverse range of characters and authors
- Summer reading challenge to encourage goal setting and reading a variety of books
- Accelerated reader enables children to read a greater range of books

Moral Values

- Core texts have been carefully chosen to reflect moral values.
- Whole class reading sessions allow for children to question the characters' choices and motives
 - Library will have a termly book vote with classes able to use their library slot to read the winning book.

Culture and Arts

- English overviews have been reviewed to include a range of diverse characters and authors
- Library visit for Pupil Premium children to see author Jacek M. Pawlowski
 - Library will stock a variety of diverse books and celebrates these throughout the year
 - We celebrated National Poetry day and Black History Month by looking at Black poets

Sporting Opportunities and Physical Health

- Library has a range of books on sports, healthy eating and cooking

Emotional and Mental Well-Being

- Each year group will have an end of year text or poem linked to emotional wellbeing
- Core texts have been selected that allow children to understand characters' emotions
- Library will be open to children during play and lunch times as a quiet space
- Classroom libraries are available for children to use throughout the day